Westhus Has Not Given Joy's "Get-Him-Quick" Man a Job-Bartholdt Coming.

Internal Revenue Collector Westhus has not yet given a job in his office to Fred Weltz, chairman of the anti-Joy Eleventh | wayman in front of her home early Wednes-Congressional District Committee. It is likely that Weitz will not receive the ap- his arms around her, and, after forcing her pointment in accordance with the orders to the ground, enatched a chatelaine bag contained in a telegram from Congressman containing several dollars and made his es-Joy to Mr. Westhus. According to rumos Mr. Westhus is in favor of running his office along the lines which he announced when he assumed charge. Another rumor has it that Congressman Joy has also changed his mind regarding Weitz's availability for a place.

Politicians yesterday accused Mr. Westhus of giving Joy's telegram to The Re-public. Mr. Westhus did not do so, and no one was more surprised than he when he read the dispatch published verbatim upon his return from his duck-hunting trip. "My friends know that I would not do such a thing," he said yesterday, "but there are something more than a hundred thousand subscribers to The Republic with whom I am not acquainted. They might think that I am responsible."

The publication of the telegram has The publication of the telegram has caused more comment among Federal office-holders than any political event since the new St. Louis appointments were made. Politicians fail to see where Joy could have gained anything by securing the appointment of Weitz. Already several prominent Republicans have been asked to serve as members-at-large on the Eleventh District Committee. It is said that Mr. Joy took his peculiar action just as much to help out his peculiar action just as much to help out Appraiser Walkenhorst as to forward his own candidacy. Walkenhorst's prospects of reappointment are not as rosy as they once

Congressman Bartholdt will not only confer with those in charge of the Internal nevenue Omce when he arrives, but he will also have an extended conference regarding the prospects fer a renomination in the Tenth District. His enemies have been letting no grass grow during the last few months. Nearly every man who has failed to land a job under the new dispensation is sore.

Chairman Fieming of the committee is still fauntiul to Bartholdt; Rehfeidt has described to the other camp. Bartholdt can practically control South St. Louis. He will have trouble in the county and in the northern part of the city. Just what plan of action he will decide upon when he is in St. Louis remains to be seen.

LIVE BABE THROWN AWAY IN SHOE BOX

Found Crying and Taken to Hospital, Where It Died a Few Hours Afterwards.

PROMINENT PHYSICIAN HELD.

Member of One of Washington's Oldest Families-Declares He Thought Child was Dead When Abandoned.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL Washington, March 13.-Doctor Charles E-Hagner was to-day bound over to await the action of the Grand Jury on a charge of 'inexcusable neglect in permitting the death of a child of Mrs. Clara L. Blair." The action was taken by the Coroner's jury, which had assembled to listen to the evidence as to the manner in which the child, which was thrown away in a shoe box in Goat Alley yesterday, and afterwards died at the Homeopathic Hospital, met its death. Doc-tor Hagner is one of the most prominent physicians of this city, a brother of Asso-date Lightley Hospital, the District Sociate Justice Hagner of the District Su-preme Bench, and father of Miss Isabelie Hagner, secretary to Mrs. Roosevelt. He was arrested last night, and was later re-leased on $3,000 bail. Doctor Hagner is a member of one of the oldest and most prom-inent families in the District.

member of one of the oldest and most prominent families in the District.

The police were informed that a white infant, yet alive, had been found in an aliey. When the police arrived the child was still alive, and was immediately sent to the hospital. Detectives were sent out to investigate the case. They learned from a negro woman living in the alley that she had seen a dignified, elderly man, walk into the alley with a paper bundle, which he did not have when he went out.

The negro woman became suspicious of the man's actions, and informed her mother, who told her to go out and see where he had dropped the package. Both women started toward the entrance to the alley and heard the crying of a very young child. A paper shoe box was taken from a garbage can and the child discovered.

The police found that Doctor Hagner had been seen in the neighborhood early in the morning and called at his house without seeing him. They set a watch on the place. Within half a block of where the child was found are the Christiani apartments. A man exactly answering the description given by the negro woman was seen to enter the flats, and so certain were the detectives they had located the man that the two negro women were sent for and brought to the apartment-house.

As Doctor Hagner started to leave the building the negro woman, Alice Windor nodded her head to the detectives indicating that he was the man she had seen enter the alley.

When questioned by Detective O'Brien Doctor Hagner admitted placing the child where it was found, saying he had done so because it was dead. When told that it was still alive, Doctor Hagner refused to believe it.

Doctor Hagner said he had been attending a Mrs. Klese in the huilding and the

ILLINOIS CROP PROSPECTS

Wheat in Excellent Condition-Peach Crop Is a Failure.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL Springfield, Ill., March 13.-The following crop bulletin covering the condition of throwing his arms about her, threw her to the pavement.

Thomas B. Rodgers of No. 3704 West Pine boulevard saw the encounter, and, seizing a revolver, ran to Mrs. Saylor's rescue. When he arrived on the scene the negro was fieeling, and Mrs. Saylor pursuing him as rapidly as possible. She followed him a block, and Mr. Rodgers, taking up the pursuit, ran to Vandeventer and Westminster avenues. During the chase Mr. Rodgers fired three shots at the negro, but they had no effect.

Mrs. Saylor seemed little the worse for her adventure when seen yesterday. She complained of some bruises and stiffness incident to the unusual exertion of chasing a highwayman, but she was greatly dealighted that a cross containing eleven diamonds, which was pinned on her breast, was not noticed by the negro. Mrs. Saylor also wore diamond earrings and a ring containing three fine stones.

The robbery was reported to the police yesterday. Mrs. Saylor says she is positive she can identify the highwayman. She says he was a very large negro, very black, and wore a mustache.

Crop bulletin covering the conductor wheat and fruit was issued to-day by the State Board of Agriculture:

"Reports received from the Department of Agriculture under date of March 10 from the wheat-growing sections of the State indicate that this crop is nexcellent seasonable condition, being 76 per cent of a full average for this time of year. While the plant generally is small it is of good color, with strong roots and ready to make vigorous growth as soon as the weather is favorable. Central Illinois reports the crop as in soon so the easy to make vigorous growth as soon as the weather is favorable. Central illinois reports the crop as in most excellent outlook for apples is reported, although it is a little early to estimate this crop. Dynamite Will Be Used on the Steamer Providence.

Vicksburg, Miss., March 13.-The tug Joe Scay, with Captain W. H. Morgan, owner of the wrecked steamer Providence; William Curbpey, president of the Board of Super-Curbpey, president of the Board of Supervisors, and several others, returned from the scene of the disaster to-day with the body of Walter Burns, a negro, the only one they succeeded in recovering. Curbpey states that the Providence is lying bottom up, and that the bodies are probably underneath the wreckage. Every effort will be made to recover them.

The launch Vivian departed at noon for the wreck, carrying dynamite to blow off the submerged cabin of the boat and secure the bodies, if there.

Pilot Johnson stayed in the pilot-house until the boat went over and had to break his way out under water. He was severely cut in the head, neck and hands. Clerk Kain went down under the boat and had to fight his way to the surface.

DEATH OF THOMAS J. WILSON. Well-Known National Guardsman Passes Away at His Home.

Thomas January Wilson, one of the bestknown young National Guardsmen in St. Louis a few years ago, died on Wednesday night at the home of his father, Hunt P. Wilson, in Normandy, aged 22 years. He had been in failing health for some time and had spent several years in Colorado. The young man was one of the old St. Louis families, a grandnephew of Wilson P. Hunt, at the house of whose brother. Abram Hunt, the Hessian contingent of the British Army surrendered to General Washington, following their surprise by him at the beginning of the battle of Trenton. On his mother's side, young Wilson was connected with the Stockton family, of which Commodore Stockton, U. S. N., was a distinguished member. His father, Hunt P. REPUBLIC SPECIAL. Wichita, Kas., March 12 .- An oil well flow ing eighty barrels per day has been abandoned on the farm of Gray Horse, an Osage Indian, near the trading post of Gray Indian, near the trading post of Gray Horse, Osage Nation, Ok. The well is supposed to be haunted by the ghost of a number of dead medicine men, who threaten the curse of the white dog upon the whole Osage tribe should any of the oil that flows from this well be used for any purpose by the Indians. Gray Horse, who is a noted Indian, has had men prospecting for oil on his farm for some time. Three paying wells have already been struck, and when he went away on a trip East he left instructions for the men to go ahead and dig another hole.

It so happened that the next well went other hole.

It so happened that the next well west drilled on a spot held sacred by the Indians, for the reason that it was the burial place of a number of noted medicine men. As soon as the Indian discovered what had been done he at once called a council of the rrominent medicine men, and they decided to let the oil go to waste. Not alone will they refuse to use it, but they forbid the white settlers to devise any scheme to catch it, as it flows down Beaver Creek.
